

Celebrating International Nurses Day 2014

“Florence Nightingale Recycled Wearable Arts Award”

Could you turn some of these.....

Into something like this.....

or even
Florence
Nightingale's attire

Nursing Showcase
Wednesday 14th May 2014
3.00 – 5.00pm
Rolleston Lecture Theatre, Christchurch Hospital

Rules for the competition are:

- Theme – “Nurses are a Force for Change”
- Only recycled / reused products may be used
- 2 Categories – 1) Gallery – a piece of recycled art for the gallery e.g. jewellery, accessories, art, sculpture
2) Wearable – a piece of recycled clothing to be modelled
- Get your staff together and put in one design per area – if your design entry is wearable it must be a single item and be modelled by one person only

Be creative.....

- Source out products you could use from your workplace, e.g. plastic cloth from dressing packs; plastic tops from IV ampoules, paper etc...
- You can choose to make an item of clothing or a piece of art ...it's really up to you
- Entry forms available via <http://www.cdhb.health.nz/Hospitals-Services/Health-Professionals/Pages/default.aspx>
- Entries close Wednesday 16th April 2014
- Gallery entries to be on display in the Rolleston Theatre Foyer by no later than 1.30pm on Wednesday 14th May 2014
- Wearable entries to be modelled at Nursing Showcase on Wednesday 14th May 2014
