

The following information is sourced from external websites and is provided for convenience. The Nursing Workforce Development Team is not responsible for the accuracy or content on such websites and the inclusion of such links does not imply endorsement of the linked websites or their providers.

Please note, the below does not include University and/or Te Pūkenga scholarships. Please see their websites for scholarship opportunities.

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
Pasifika Medical Association - Elizabeth Powell Nursing Scholarship	Pasifika		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Awarded to two indigenous Pacific registered nurses undertaking a post graduate program of study. Awarded $5000 each. Preference given to nurses undertaking Masters programs related to nursing and or health related studies. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Be of an Indigenous Pacific ethnic group. Be a New Zealand resident - Citizen or Permanent Resident. Be enrolled in the current year in a Post graduate Nursing or Health related program of study in New Zealand. Be engaged and connected with their Pacific nursing community and/or community. Demonstrate experience in community leadership or aspirations to become a leader in their community. Provide evidence of good standing in the community (2 x reference letters from a non-relative or family acquaintance) 	Please check webpage as this is unclear currently.
Pasifika Medical Association – The Sir Terepai Tuamure maoate International Study Award	Pasifika		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Sir Terepai Tuamure Maoate International Study Award will be awarded to an indigenous Pacific-based Doctor or Nurse to undertake a course of study at an international institution. Awarded $20,000 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Be of an Indigenous Pacific ethnic group. Be a resident, citizen, or Permanent Resident of a Pacific Island nation. Be enrolled and accepted into an international course. Provide evidence of good standing in the community (2 x reference letters from a non-relative or family acquaintance). 	Please check webpage as this is unclear currently.
Health Research Council – Pacific Health Research PhD Scholarships	Pasifika	PhD	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Three years of personal support for outstanding graduates undertaking a PhD in any discipline related to improving the health of Pacific peoples. $30,000 (tax-free stipend) per annum, with other benefits including a $10,000 grant for working expenses and a Tufungatika allowance of $3,000 over the tenure of the award. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> You will need to be a New Zealand citizen or hold residency in New Zealand and be of Indigenous Pacific descent. Most applicants will be enrolled full-time for a research-based degree at the doctoral level, usually a doctorate of philosophy at a New Zealand University. However, we will consider other applications from students enrolled in other doctoral research degrees or who are enrolled part-time. If you have not yet enrolled for your proposed course of study, but are intending to do so, you can still apply - in this case, any scholarship you may receive will be conditional on your successful enrolment. 	Registrations open = June Registration close = July Outcome = October
Health Research Council – Pacific Health Research Masters Scholarship	Pasifika	Masters	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> These scholarships are available for Pacific students undertaking the research component of their masters' degrees. The total value of the scholarships is $20,000 stipend + tuition fees + $1000 Tufungatika allowance for a term of one year full-time or a maximum of two years' part-time. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> You will need to be a New Zealand citizen or hold residency in New Zealand and be of Indigenous Pacific descent. Usually, successful applicants will be enrolled full-time for a master's degree, however, we will consider applications from students enrolled part-time. If you have not yet enrolled for your proposed course of study, but are intending to do so, you can still apply - in this case, any scholarship that you may receive will be conditional on your successful enrolment. 	Registrations open = June Registration close = July Outcome = October

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
				During the tenure of the scholarship, your only activity must be the conduct of research and the preparation of a thesis or dissertation. If you are undertaking courses involving the completion of papers only, you will not be eligible for this scholarship.
Te Whatu Ora - Pacific Health Scholarship	Pasifika		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Applications for the Scholarships are open to full and part-time students. The Scholarships offer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> up to $5,000 for nursing, midwifery, allied health and all remaining eligible qualifications. List of eligible qualifications available on the webpage <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Includes: Master of Nursing, Master of Health Science, Master of Public Health 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Be a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident at the time of the application. Be enrolled in a health or disability-related course/qualification. Be enrolled at an approved NZQA accredited tertiary provider in New Zealand Provide evidence (passport, birth certificate, reference letter) of indigenous Pacific descent from any of the following islands: Samoa, American Samoa, Tonga, Cook Islands, Niue, Tokelau, Fiji, Rotuma, Solomon Islands, Vanuatu, New Caledonia, Papua New Guinea, Kiribati, Tuvalu, Palau, Marshall Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, Wallis and Futuna, Hawaii, French Polynesia, Rapanui (Easter Island). The following applicants are deemed ineligible: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students who qualify for the fees free scheme for the current academic year. Students who have been or will be awarded any other scholarship of more than $1,000 from another source for the current academic year. Sixth year medical students because they receive a stipend. PhD students because the frontline workforce takes priority. First year health science students and bio-medical students (competitive courses) 	Closing date = February
Futures that Work Scholarship Programme	Pasifika	Mental Health and Addiction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Funded up to a maximum of $5000 per year. However, it is up to the assessment panel to recommend the amount of the scholarship awarded. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Futures that Work scholarships are for those of indigenous Pasifika descent who are a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident at the time of application. The applicant must also be enrolled in a relevant mental health or addiction-related qualification at an approved NZQA accredited education provider in New Zealand. This scholarship is also a combination of providing appropriate mentoring, coaching, cultural and pastoral care, as well as support in identifying employment and career pathways. 	Opens = December Closes = February Successful applicants notified in March
Cancer Society - Māori Cancer Research Awards	Māori	Cancer Masters PhD	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Has both Masters scholarship and PhD scholarship categories: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Masters, one year = $35,000 stipend (12 months) and tuition fees of $10,000 PhD, three year = $40,000 stipend (per year), tuition fees of $10,000 (per year), and tikanga contribution of $10,000 across the course of the award Part-time students are welcomed to apply. Scholarship will be pro-rated. 	The Māori Cancer Researcher Awards 2023 are for researchers who are committed to hauora Māori, maximizing Māori cancer health gains, addressing existing cancer inequities, and/or fostering Māori health aspirations. We value applications that include Kaupapa Māori and mātauranga Māori. Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Be of Māori descent Be resident in Aotearoa New Zealand Have academic supervision which includes at least one Māori supervisor. Those unable to identify a Māori supervisor are encouraged to get in touch prior to applying. Information on supporting Māori students through their studies can be found here: https://tinyurl.com/ahuruakonga Intend to enroll or already be enrolled in a Research Masters or PhD. Those who have not yet enrolled for their proposed course of study but are intending to do so may apply for this scholarship. In this case any 	Deadline is 29 th September

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
				award will be conditional on the applicant's successful enrolment in either a Research Masters or PhD at a University or Whare Wānanga in Aotearoa New Zealand.
Pharmac – Tapuhi Kaitiaki Awards	Māori		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pharmac, in conjunction with Te Poari o Te Rūnanga o Aotearoa/New Zealand Nurses Organization (NZNO), established the Tapuhi Kaitiaki Awards in recognition of the positive impact Māori nurses have on whānau and the role they play as key influencers on health outcomes. 	The Tapuhi Kaitiaki Awards is offered in two categories: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Nurse Practitioner or Nurse Prescribing Award <ul style="list-style-type: none"> This award acknowledges nurses who are on a professional development journey to become a nurse prescriber and supports them to advance their clinical practice and expertise. Māori Nurse Mātauranga Award <ul style="list-style-type: none"> These awards are open to nurses (enrolled and registered) and taira who wish to further their study and/or would like to develop an innovative way to assist whānau, hapū and iwi to access and understand their medicines. 	Please check webpage as this is unclear currently.
Toitū Kaupapa Māori Mātauranga (Māori Education Trust) – Rose Hellaby Postgraduate Scholarship	Māori	Masters PhD	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> These prestigious scholarships are available to Māori students with a record of proven academic excellence, undertaking Masters or PhD postgraduate study in the fields of engineering, mathematics, science, technology, or medicine. Study can be conducted in New Zealand or overseas. 	The objective of the Rose Hellaby Postgraduate scholarship is to encourage Māori students to expand their horizons by pursuing higher education to reach their full potential in their chosen field of study. The scholarships are aimed towards developing today's students into tomorrow's leaders thereby benefitting their Whānau / Iwi and the wider community. Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> be of New Zealand Māori descent. be enrolled at a tertiary institute at the time the application is submitted. meet the criteria for the scholarship. submit the application and supporting documentation on time. 	Closing date = April
Toitū Kaupapa Māori Mātauranga (Māori Education Trust) – Rangiriri and Mātene Te Whiwhi Winiata Scholarship	Māori		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Available to a Māori graduates to enable them to complete postgraduate studies. Pre-requisite is completion of a master's degree 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Be of New Zealand Māori descent. Be enrolled at a tertiary institute in 2023. Be attending study for the full year. Meet the criteria for the scholarships applied for. Submit the application and supporting documentation on time. 	Closing date = April
Toitū Kaupapa Māori Mātauranga (Māori Education Trust) – Eric Hall McCormick Scholarship	Māori	University of Auckland	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Available to a Māori student undertaking research at postgraduate level in a field which is of significant benefit to Māori. Priority will be given to a student attending the University of Auckland. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Be of New Zealand Māori descent. Be enrolled at a tertiary institute in 2023. Be attending study for the full year. Meet the criteria for the scholarships applied for. Submit the application and supporting documentation on time. 	Closing date = April
Toitū Kaupapa Māori Mātauranga (Māori Education Trust) – Roy Watling Mitchell Prestigious Professions Scholarship	Māori		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Available to a Māori graduate with a record of academic excellence. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Be of New Zealand Māori descent. Be enrolled at a tertiary institute in 2023. Be attending study for the full year. Meet the criteria for the scholarships applied for. Submit the application and supporting documentation on time.
Toitū Kaupapa Māori Mātauranga (Māori Education Trust) – Iwi specific scholarships	Māori		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Please click on the following links if you whakapapa to the corresponding Iwi to see if you are eligible for a scholarship. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ngā Tāngata Tiaki o Whanganui Te Whawhaki Trust is the charitable arm of Ngā Tāngata Tiaki o Whanganui and was established to utilise funds that benefit Whanganui Iwi and Te Awa Tupua. Te Mana o Te Awa and Te Mana o te Iwi Scholarships have been established to assist uri of Whanganui Iwi to grow capability and capacity.	Varied. Please see individual webpages.

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
				Ultimately, it is intended that Scholarship recipients will contribute to the health and well-being of both the Whanganui River (Te Awa Tupua) and Whanganui Iwi. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Te Rūnanga o Ngāti Kea Ngāti Tuara Te Rūnanga o Ngāti Kea Ngāti Tuara was established in 2007 and provides strategic leadership for Ngāti Kea Ngāti Tuara in a number of areas. Their office is based in Rotorua. • Tangiharuru Apa Trust The Tangiharuru Apa Trust is located in Murupara, in the Whakatāne District. • Whakatōhea The Trust Board has enrolled on its tribal database approximately 16,841 voting members and actively communicates with its members via our website, social media, E- Pānui, and Hapū Reports. If you whakapapa to Whakatōhea, to be eligible for these scholarships make sure to register on the webpage. • Te Rūnanga o Ngāti Mutunga Te Rūnanga o Ngāti Mutunga is the governance body which owns and administers the collective assets for the benefit of Ngāti Mutunga. Their office is based in Urenui. • Te Korowai o Ngāruahine Trust Te Korowai o Ngāruahine Trust (Te Korowai) is the Post Settlement Governance Entity established in 2013 as part of the Ngāruahine Settlement process and is the representative body for Ngāruahine iwi. Their office is based in Hāwera.
Hiwa-i-te-rangi - Māori Health Leadership Scholarship	Māori	Masters PhD	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This is the third year running this workforce development scholarship is investing $20,000 in Māori individuals who are on a pathway to making a difference for health equity outcomes. • A maximum of $10,000 may be awarded to any one individual per year, and the scholarship can be used to pay for tuition fees, living costs, or study-related costs. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This scholarship is open to all Māori descendants who are currently living in Aotearoa New Zealand, and currently studying or about to embark on study. Applicants must also be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Demonstrate their commitment to increasing Māori leadership within the health sector. • Show their passion for health equity and building a responsive health service for Māori. • Show their commitment to, and involvement in, Te Ao Māori Hiwa-i-te-rangi is the youngest child of Rehua and Matariki. ‘Hiwa’ means ‘vigorous of growth’ and ‘i te rangi’ means ‘in the sky.’ Her role is to shine, providing illumination and motivation for us to step into the unknown. The job of Hiwa-i-te-rangi is to look after people’s wishes. For more, here is Dr Rangi Mataamua sharing a kōrero on Hiwa-i-te-rangi.	Closing date = August
Te Aka Whai Ora - Te Pitomata Grants	Māori		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Te Pitomata - The Power of Potential - is an annual grants program that supports the growth and upskilling of the Māori health workforce. It began in 2022 and replaces the 	The five categories of the Te Pitomata Grants: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Midwifery 2. Allied Health, Scientific & Technical 3. Nursing 4. Medical 	Awaiting update on Te Pitomata Grants webpage for 2024 applications

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
			previous Hauora Māori Scholarship that was administered by Manatū Hauora Ministry of Health. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> All grants are $4500. Te Aka Whai Ora, Te Whatu Ora and Manatū Hauora employees studying in any of the five hauora categories can apply. 	5. Corporate
Te Rau Puawai	Māori	Mental Health and Addiction Massey University	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Must complete courses through Massey University. Contributions to cover fees (paid directly to the university or StudyLink should you receive a student loan) and in some cases, travel costs (conditions apply). Amount funded is not disclosed. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Te Rau Puawai aims to increase professionalism in the Māori mental health workforce. The programme is a partnership between Te Aka Whai Ora (Māori Health Authority) and Massey University. It gives bursaries and learning support to students who want to begin or complete a Massey University qualification in health. It is expected that Te Rau Puawai students will contribute towards improving Māori mental health by gaining employment in a relevant field after graduation. To help you get there, Te Rau Puawai offer an administrator and director, Pou ā Rongo (mentor) who all provide advice and general learning support. 	Closing date = 26 th October
Te Rau Ora – Māori Health Leadership Scholarship	Māori		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Individual applies for amount between $1000-$5000 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Te Rau Ora Scholarships & Bursaries provide financial assistance to students who are undertaking or completing a New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) accredited qualification in health and disability studies. Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Of Māori descent A New Zealand citizen or New Zealand permanent resident Studying in New Zealand at a recognised New Zealand tertiary institution A current leader in the health sector or potential leader aspiring to work in Māori health leadership roles across the health, mental health and or the addiction sector. 	Opens = December Closes = February
Te Rau Ora – Hoe Tahi Addiction Sector Scholarships	Māori	Mental Health and Addiction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Individual applies for amount between $1000-$5000 Study must be relevant to those already working in the health and allied sectors and wanting to enhance their understanding and knowledge of working with people who experience addiction-related harm. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Hoe Tahi Addiction Scholarships are for those intending to complete a qualification that contributes to minimising addiction-related harm. This scholarship aims to strengthen the addiction treatment workforce by growing the capability of those working to minimise addiction-related harm. Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A New Zealand citizen or New Zealand permanent resident. Those pursuing a career within the addiction treatment sector. Studying in New Zealand. 	Opens = December Closes = February
ACC Innovation Fund	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Awarded up to $100,000. ACC fund to promote research and innovation that promotes people to recover after injury. 	The proposal could focus on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Introducing new or more efficient pathways of care. A product that improves access to a service for clients in hard-to-reach places or for specific client groups. Improving a current process that could save you and the injured person time. Technology that provides insights on services the injured person receives and their impact. A new package of care that can be tailored around the injured person and their workplace. This might help the injured person achieve their best outcome. 	Key dates are listed on their website. ROI submissions open May

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
				Projects that ACC are likely to support: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Are ready for implementation. • Can be delivered within three to six months after receiving the funding. Projects delivered within 12 months will be considered. • Are accessible to all cultures and people in your region and reflect equitable outcomes. • Are supported by clinicians, clients or client groups, a New Zealand based institution or organization. • Have the potential to be scaled up in partnership.
Emerging Researcher Grant - Canterbury Medical Research Foundation	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Five grants of $20,000 each year awarded. • The purpose of these grants are to support emerging researchers in Te Whatu Ora Waitaha; grow research capacity across Te Whatu ora Waitaha; support diversity in the research workforce in Te Whatu Ora Waitaha; supports research that contributes to health equity in Te Whatu Ora Waitaha. 	Applicants must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be a Te Whatu Ora Waitaha Canterbury employee but not in a research capacity and have not previously been funded for a research project. • Have the support of a team which includes one or more Te Whatu Ora Waitaha Canterbury employees. The project must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have a duration of 1 year. • Align with the purpose of the grants. • Be supported by the applicant's department. Please see the webpage for further conditions.	Applications open = 1 September 2023 Applications close = 16 October 2023
Health Workforce New Zealand (HWNZ) Scholarship	Any	Masters	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Te Whatu Ora Waitaha administers funded scholarships via HWD (Health Workforce Directorate, formerly HWNZ) for postgraduate nursing certificates, diplomas and masters qualifications for nurses in the Canterbury Health System. • Applications are for both academic semesters the following year. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • RNs must be permanent employees and NZ citizens or residents. Te Whatu Ora Waitaha nurses must be working 0.5 FTE or greater. • Except for those in designated senior nursing roles, Te Whatu Ora Waitaha and Pegasus applicants must have successfully completed a PDRP portfolio prior to application. • Charge Nurse Manager and Nursing Director/Consultant endorsement of applicants is required. • Applicants must have completed an Individual Career Plan. A copy of the career plan is not required with the application for funding; however, it must be produced if requested. 	Applications open = August Applications close = mid-October
NZNO – Canterbury Thomas Tippet Education Award	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Must be a NZNO member. • Several categories: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Conference/Course award ○ Overseas study award ○ Postgraduate study award ○ Community Health and Research Award ○ Undergraduate Nursing Student Award • Note: various categories have different requirements. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Applications collected from the NZNO office in Christchurch (or via phone or email) • Different criteria may receive different monetary amounts. The monetary amount is not disclosed in the information. • Post fulfilment of award, the individual must submit a short reflection/report about the benefits received from the event attended or papers studied. 	Closing Date - 31st March & 30th September
NZNO – McMutchan Trust Publishing Thesis or Research Paper Scholarship	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Up to $20,000 for all categories. This amount may be split between successful applicants across all categories. 	Categories: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To assist individuals to gain a higher qualification after their basic preparation, including specialization in a clinical field. Scholarships or grants may be made to cover costs to enable them to study, practice or conduct research. 	Closing Date – p.m., October 7th

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This scholarship is intended to support applicants to complete or publish a thesis or research study. It may provide funded time or funded release time to write, or where applicable the costs of binding and printing. Any qualified nurse may apply but NZNO members will be given preference. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> To facilitate nursing research either in New Zealand or overseas by an applicant whose research will benefit nursing in New Zealand. To provide resource material which supports the work of nurses, for example to implement a model of care. To enable seminars to be held in New Zealand and may include the cost of bringing experts from within New Zealand (or from overseas) to teach or participate at such seminars. To assist in completing and/or publishing any thesis or study. Note: Does not have to be specific to enrolment in a course of study. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Your research/project/study may be written up in the Kai Tiaki Nursing New Zealand magazine. If your work is included in the magazine the inclusion will be a summary and will not preclude publication of your work in other journals. An abstract and details of any research will be made available online at www.nzno.org.nz. You will supply NZNO with either a digital or hard copy of any thesis or report to add to the NZNO Library. Your research/project/study will be included in the Nursing Research Index.
NZNO – Postgraduate Fund (Nursing Education Research Fund)	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Up to $2000 is awarded per applicant. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Course approved by relevant professional body. Contributes to nursing/midwifery/healthcare in New Zealand. Evidence of enrolment/attendance receipt required. Seven hundred level courses that are part of completing a postgraduate qualification (postgrad certificate or diploma) qualify for this grant. 	Opens = mid-January Closes = mid-February Opens = mid-May Closes = end of June
NZNO – Research and Innovation Grant (Nursing Education Research Fund)	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Up to $7300 is awarded per applicant. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Contributes to nursing/midwifery/healthcare in Aotearoa New Zealand Planning recognizes te Tiriti o Waitangi, scopes implications for and benefits to Māori. Describes robust design and methodology. Ethics approval granted or an ethics application outcome pending. Detailed budget and timeline provided (NB: researcher time will only be paid if research is not part of applicant’s job description, and they are not employed fulltime Computer hardware &/or electronic equipment is not funded) 	Opens = mid-January Closes = mid-February
NZNO - Catherine Logan Memorial Scholarship (Nursing Education Research Fund)	Any	Perioperative Care	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Up to $600 is awarded. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> NZ RN undertaking postgraduate study related to Perioperative care. Qualified RN working/studying in the Perioperative area. Evidence of enrolment in the study program you are undertaking. 	Opens = mid-January Closes = mid-February
NZNO – Margaret Nicholls (Nursing Education Research Fund)	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This fund is for any NZNO member who does not have access to other funding sources. Up to $1900 available 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Reside in New Zealand Be a current financial member of NZNO 	Opens = August Closes = October
Cancer Research Trust NZ – Research Projects Grants	Any	Cancer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Maximum $80,000 	These initiatives can be in the field of cancer-related public health, or biomedical, clinical, epidemiological, or psychosocial research and may relate to:	Close 1 st Sept, outcome mid-November

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
				<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Education and training of students embarking on careers related to cancer care and/or cancer research. Continuing professional development of individuals involved in cancer care and/or cancer research. Event support for invited speakers at conferences or support for training courses. Hypothesis-based research in the field of cancer-related public health, cancer prevention, cancer treatment or the delivery of palliative care. Other projects or activities related to cancer.
Cancer Society – National Research Grant Round	Any	Cancer PhD	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> For PhD research Maximum value of award = $135,000 ($35,000 p.a stipend + up to $10,000 p.a towards university fees/research expenses/travel/thesis publication). Grant duration is 36 months. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Cancer Society PhD scholarship is open to New Zealand citizens or permanent residents of New Zealand who are eligible for registration as a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at a New Zealand University or Wānanga. Priority will be given to PhD scholarship applications in areas where grant opportunities are limited. The award is for two years in the first instance with extension to three years, subject to satisfactory evidence of progress. PhD students may undertake teaching or clinical duties relevant to their research with respect to their research with their supervisor’s approval. Grantees may request permission for study leave according to the criteria of their employing institution. Additional income may be derived if this does not interfere with the course of study. Overseas tenure is not normally permitted. 	Timeline in guideline document . EOI begins in March, notified of outcomes in October
Cancer Research Trust New Zealand – Clinical Fellowship for Cancer Nurses	Any	Cancer Masters PhD	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This Fellowship will be awarded to a nurse who is committed to a clinical career with a major involvement in cancer treatment or care of those affected by cancer. It is intended for nurses so that they can enhance their practice and expertise through further clinical training and/or research and thus contribute to improved patient outcomes in New Zealand. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Applicants should be New Zealand citizens or permanent residents who have recently completed a relevant Bachelor or Master’s degree. The Fellowship will be available to nurses working clinically in (but not limited to) the fields of cancer nursing across the continuum (education, detection, treatment, rehabilitation, and palliation) in primary and secondary health care. Funding: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Clinical Fellowship provides a salary for up to two years and up to $3,000 of return travel costs, but the provision of equipment and working expenses for research will be the responsibility of the Sponsoring Institution. Institutional overheads will not be paid. With the approval of the Trust the salary may be spread over a period of up to three years. Research conducted by the Fellow may be used towards the requirements of a higher degree (Masters or PhD). 	Closing date: October
Oakley Mental Health Research Foundation	Any	Mental Health	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Amounts up to $30,000 will be awarded (approx. $60,000 available per year) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This foundation supports high quality research into studies that address problems with mental health by providing funding for studies into their epidemiology, etiology, pathology, clinical presentation, intervention, and prevention or towards any one or more related objects or purposes which are charitable in accordance with the law of NZ. Must provide a progress report and final report. 	Deadline is 29 th of September
Arthritis NZ – Summer Scholarship	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Awarded $6000 (excluding GST) Designed for a 10–12-week project. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The student’s supervisor must submit application. The purpose of Arthritis NZ Summer Scholarships is to engage and support students in research in the area of arthritis, under the 	Due 7 th August

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Would be ideal for a research paper project. • Must align with Arthritis NZ four key objectives. 	supervision of an experienced research professional working in academia, health service provision or other types of institutional organizations.
Vic Davies Memorial Trust – Research Grant	Any	Mental Health	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Award is $40,000 • Research within the field mental health. • Is for organization rather than individuals (group projects) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Applications will only be considered from organizations that have a prior history or context of work in the field of mental health. • The researchers named within the application must also have a sound academic record. • The scope of the research considered within this fellowship includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ The nature of mental health ○ The origin and causes of mental health disorders. ○ Prevention of mental health disorders ○ Diagnosis ○ Treatment and cure • Expected that the research will take up to two years. 	Closes July 31 st
The Capstone Editing Early Career Academic Research Grant for Women	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Awarded up to A$5000 for one academic per year to assist with the costs associated with a research project of her choosing leading towards a publication. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Must be a woman. • Must be employed in an academic staff member at a university. • Can be permanent or fixed term. • Early career academic (graduated with a PhD within past 6 years) • Research project must be leading to publication. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The grant can be used to cover any costs related to the research project, such as conducting a field trip; purchasing books, software or equipment; hiring a translator; travel to learn new techniques in a lab interstate or overseas; small lab equipment; key reagents to complete a project; performing surveys or interviews; and academic editing, such as for journal articles, manuscripts and conference papers. • The grant can also be used to cover expenses that most university funding does not cover, such as those related to the need of academic women to secure paid childcare to assist them to meet their work responsibilities and research goals, due to the continued prevalence of traditional gender roles around caring in the home. 	Can apply at any time
Falling Walls Lab New Zealand	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 3-minute speech competition • Winner of competition goes to international competition to Berlin to compete and win a “cash prize” and other international networking opportunities. 	Applicants must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Currently reside in either New Zealand or a PIF nation (excl. Australia*) • Be 18 years of age or over. • Hold a passport valid until at least May 2024. • Not previously presented at Falling Walls Lab New Zealand. In addition, you must fulfill at least one of the following formal requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hold a degree or be currently enrolled in university (copy of degree may be required), or • Hold a bachelor’s degree which must have been received within ten (10) years prior to 1 January 2023 (i.e., conferred on or after 1 January 2013), or • Hold a master’s degree which must have been received within seven (7) years prior to 1 January 2023 (i.e., conferred on or after 1 January 2016), or • Hold a PhD which must have been received within five (5) years prior to 1 January 2023 (i.e., conferred on or after 1 January 2018) 	Application closing date = 1 st June

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
Health Research Council – Explorer Grants	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explorer Grants provide seed support for researchers with transformative, innovative, exploratory, or unconventional research ideas that have a good chance of making a revolutionary change to how we manage health in Aotearoa New Zealand. $150,000 for a term of up to 24 months. Ideal for MDT or larger research. 	Four Explorer Grant categories to choose from: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Rangahau Hauora Māori Pacific Health Delivery General Eligibility requirements (more information on the Explorer Grant webpage): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Your principal domicile and place of employment must be Aotearoa New Zealand to be eligible for a 2024 Explorer Grant. This requirement applies to all first named investigators. Your application must also have the support of your host institution. There is a limit of 2 Explorer Grant applications per first named investigators. 	Registrations open = Oct 2023 Close = Nov 2023
Health Research Council - Projects	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Funding of up to 1.2 million across selected research projects. Research projects that have the potential to vastly improve the health of New Zealanders. Projects can cover a diverse range of areas, from biomedical and public health to clinical studies, Māori-focused research, and Pacific health research. Most projects have a term of three years, but we can negotiate terms of up to five years. Ideal for MDT or larger research. 	Three project categories to choose from: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Rangahau Hauora Māori Pacific Project General Project Eligibility requirements (more information on the Projects webpage): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> If you are the first named investigator (i.e., lead researcher) on a project application, you must be based in New Zealand and employed with a New Zealand host organisation. For Pacific Projects, the first named investigator must be of Pacific indigenous descent. There is a limit of two project applications per first named investigator/co-first named investigator. Collaborating researchers from outside New Zealand can, at the HRC's discretion, be included as named investigators on an HRC Project contract. However, the HRC will not contribute to the overhead of the overseas investigator, and the total proportion of contract budget allocated to overseas investigators must not exceed 20 percent. 	Two stage application process. Registration + EOI (first stage) = Opens June, Closes July If EOI successful, you will be invited to submit a full application (second stage) = Opens October, Closes November.
Neurological Foundation – O'Brien Clinical Fellowships	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> These fellowships are intended to support non-medical health professionals to pursue a career in clinical research. Funding: two years equivalent of salary support, based on the successful Fellow's salary had they continued in a clinical post in New Zealand for 40 – 44.9 hours per week. The research FTE can be spread across more than two years, as long as it is at least 50% for each year. Travel grants can also be applied for with the Foundation separately. This is up to $4,500. 	Requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Non-medical health professionals undertaking clinical or biomedical research in New Zealand or overseas. At least 50% of the fellow's time is to be spent on research. New Zealand citizens or permanent residents Must be a New Zealand registered health professionals who does not have a PhD. 	Closing date = 1st May
The Ministry of Health Oral Health Research Fund	Any	Dental	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Applications are invited for grants to support research in fields related to dentistry, specifically targeting these four groups - children and adolescents; people of all ages with physical, intellectual, behavioral, or cognitive disabilities, or who are 	The Ministry of Health Oral Health Research Fund will prioritise funding for three overarching areas (more information on each area on webpage link): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Research, including, applied clinical, non-clinical, epidemiological, or operational research. Evaluation and analysis specific sector information. Review and analysis specific sector information. 	Applications close = 30th April

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
			medically compromised; people experiencing inequalities in outcome (e.g., Māori, Pacific and low-income populations); and older adults. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> No information available on website regarding amount funded.
InternetNZ – Grants	Any	Nursing Informatics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet Te Tari o te Pirimia me te Komiti Matua has partnered with InternetNZ Ipurangi Aotearoa to establish a one-off fund. The purpose of this fund is to support efforts by the community to build resilience against the harms of disinformation in Aotearoa. The fund will support initiatives to develop domestic expertise and capability and initiatives for education and community outreach. Along with administrative support and collaboration sessions, we have $680,000 available to give out in grants towards initiatives, outreach activities and educational resources. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The grants will go to initiatives that ensure public trust and confidence and demonstrate principles of transparency and a commitment to human rights, including protecting freedom of expression. Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> development of resource materials delivery of educational programs including venue hire, koha and kai operational costs, within delivery of initiatives, for organization whose kaupapa aligns. 	Check the webpage as this has a 'sign up to receive notifications' link.
MedTech – Research Acceleration Programme	Any	Nursing Informatics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The RAP is a contestable acceleration program for very early-stage medical device and digital health technology projects working towards clinical application and commercialization. This initiative is funded by MBIE for $2.7 million per year for 3 years and hosted by the University of Auckland on behalf of the CMDT partners. Not for Masters or PhD students. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This program will identify, de-risk and curate opportunities for innovative health technologies, with an emphasis towards those addressing accessibility and inequity issues. The objective is to create a high-value deep tech pipeline for the investment community. Te Titoki Mataora is excited to partner with Te Whatu Ora and Whānau Tahī to launch the Medtech-iQ Aotearoa Healthtech Challenge. There are three categories: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Long-term conditions pathway (Te Whatu Ora priority) Virtual/Digital Hospital (Te Whatu Ora priority) Whānau supporting whānau (Whānau Ora priority) Further information is on the webpage. Detailed expected project stages and guidelines are included. Project eligibility criteria (please see the webpage for further details): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Projects must be a collaboration between at least two organizations. The project must be led by researchers at any of the organizations listed above. Obvious reasons must be given as to why this collaboration is important to the medtech translational network, its goals, what it will achieve from this project, and next steps. A project plan to progress the collaboration or new idea is expected alongside a budget. Early/Mid-Career Researchers (EMCRs) and clinicians are encouraged to apply. Doctoral and Masters' students are not eligible for this funding as it is focused on developing longer term goals and relationships to grow the translational RAP Stage I Collaboration and Ideation Fund Guidelines 2023 Page 3 research community. However, students can be included in the meetings, workshops, and activities that the project will support. 	Applications may be submitted at any time; however, funding is awarded every two months from February.

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
				<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Industry collaborators can be a collaborator in the project, but funding may not cover the costs of their participation (e.g., travel or accommodation costs)
Mercia Barnes Trust – Research Grants	Any	Obstetrics and Gynecology	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Trust aims to assist and promote research in the area of women’s and reproductive health. The Mercia Barnes Trust specifically supports New Zealand research with a focus on supporting young researchers. The Mercia Barnes Trust invites applications annually for research fellowships in the area of women’s and reproductive health. Funding up to a value of $35,000 each is granted. Smaller or multiple grants are considered. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> New Zealand researchers in the field of obstetrics and gynaecology and reproductive health can apply for this grant. You must have support of a host research institution. Preference is given to young and/or early career researchers or studies that actively support the development of junior researchers. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Areas of research undertaken include preterm delivery, hysterectomy, vulval cancer, premature ovarian failure, polycystic ovarian syndrome, endometriosis, dysmenorrhea, small for gestational age babies, HPV testing, IVF and breastfeeding, maternal sleep practices and risk of late stillbirth, perinatal mortality, obstetrics — intrapartum care, cervical dysplasia, and biomedical science. 	Opens early 2024
Toitū Kaupapa Māori Mātauranga (Māori Education Trust) – Queen Elizabeth 2nd Postgraduate Fellowship	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Available to a Māori or non-Māori graduate with excellent academic ability, who plans to research at postgraduate level, in a field that will benefit Māori. 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Be enrolled at a tertiary institute. Meet the criteria for the scholarships applied for. Submit the application and supporting documentation on time. 	Closing date = April
The Freemasons University Scholarships – University Scholarships 2024	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Freemasons Scholarships are to assist able students who are actively involved in their community, to complete their university education in their chosen field. The scholarships are provided annually, funded, and administered by The Freemasons Charity. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> These are open to all but are awarded on academic excellence and the community involvement of students. Value: Post Graduate Scholarships $10,000. Duration: One year’s duration Number available: eight Postgraduate Scholarships Scholarships Universities: Auckland, AUT, Waikato, Massey, Victoria, Canterbury, Lincoln, and Otago	Opening Date = 1 st July Closing date = 1 st October
BK Otway Education Foundation – Nursing Scholarship (via Perpetual Guardian)	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This is an annual scholarship. It is noted that preference is shown to Auckland/Northland For individuals (not groups) Application is via portal on Perpetual Guardian website 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Educational scholarships for undergraduate, postgraduate and master’s education for nursing-based learning. 	Applications are open from 2 October – 20 October.
Graduate Women Manawatu Postgraduate Scholarships	Any	Massey University	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> For high-achieving female students who are currently enrolled at Massey University in a master's degree or the final year of a postgraduate honours. Awarded either $5000 or $10000 	Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident female currently enrolled at Massey University in a master’s degree or the final year of a postgraduate honours The selection will be based on the applicant’s: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> academic profile and achievements financial situation personal profile Award History - Graduate Women Manawatu Charitable Trust (GWM-CT) is a social enterprise associated with the Manawatu Branch. The primary business of the Trust is the Academic Gown Hire, based at the Massey University, Palmerston North campus.	Opens: 1 st January 2024 Closes: 31 st March 2024

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
Graduate Women New Zealand – Harriette Jenkins Scholarships	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The purpose of the Harriette Jenkins Awards is to encourage members of GWNZ to undertake study or research. The awards are made in recognition of service to GWNZ whether at Branch or national/international level. Awarded $5000 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Funds may be spent on incidental expenses related to study or research, for example costs of travel, childcare, or specific research costs; funds may not be spent on conference travel. The applicant is a female degree graduate, who: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> is an active member of GWNZ and has been a member for at least two full years. is undertaking a research project or research degree with in an approved tertiary institution in New Zealand or overseas. is a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident. does not currently hold another GWNZ - Charitable Trust scholarship. Selection criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Proposed study/research Academic profile Achievements Financial circumstances Potential impact 	Opens = 1st May 2024 Closes = 30th June 2024
Graduate Woman New Zealand – Fellowship	Any	PhD	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The purpose of the GWNZ Fellowships is to provide recognition and financial assistance to outstanding female degree graduates who undertake doctoral study. Awarded between $5000 to $10,000 	Eligibility criteria: The applicant is a female degree graduate, who: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> is enrolled for doctoral study at an approved tertiary institution in New Zealand or overseas. is a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident. does not hold another GWNZ - Charitable Trust scholarship. Selection criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Proposed study Academic profile Achievements Financial circumstances Potential impact 	Opens = 1st May 2024 Closes = 30th June 2024
New Horizons for Women – Education Awards	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Value of the award is determined by the NZQA level – for Level 7 and above = $3000 	Eligibility for Education Awards: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Are enrolled in an NZQA approved tertiary qualification. Are a citizen of New Zealand or hold a resident class visa and live in New Zealand. Are studying at Certificate level (NZQA level (3-4) or Diploma level (NZQA level 5-6) or Degree Level, (NZQA levels 7 and above). Have not previously received a New Horizons for Women Trust: Hine Kahukura award at the level of study being applied for. Selection criteria: Academic record and potential to successfully complete your programme of study. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Background information including reasons for returning to education, future study, or employment goals. How the award will contribute to your success. 	Opens = July 2024
Women’s Institute - Barbara Wood Memorial Foundation	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Scholarships up to $1000 a year are granted depending on the need and cost of the course being undertaken. 	Who can apply? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The scholarships are available to tertiary students, both female and male, who were born in the South Pacific region which not only includes the island nations of the Pacific but also New Zealand and Australia. 	Applications close 19th January 2024

Name of Funding Body	Ethnicity	Key words	Description	Specific requirements/further information	Important dates
			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Successful recipients in any one year can apply again in any subsequent year. 	The application must be accompanied by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> An outline of the course for which financial support is required and the benefits to be derived from your completion of this course. Evidence of you having been accepted in the accredited educational or training course in the year in which you are applying. NZQA if in New Zealand. A full budget for the total cost of the course. The amount of financial contribution which you are prepared to make, and any other financial assistance available. A current C.V. A current (not more than 2 years old) character reference from a responsible citizen.
1000minds – Decision-making Scholarship and Conjoint Analysis Scholarship	Any		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1000minds project believe that with better understanding and decision-making, the world will be a better place. Awards two $2000 USD scholarships each year. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The 1000minds decision-making scholarship is awarded for a research project by a post-graduate student about or involving the use of multi-criteria decision-making (MCDM) / multi-criteria decision analysis (MCDA). The 1000minds conjoint analysis scholarship is awarded for a research project by a post-graduate student about or involving the use of conjoint analysis, choice modeling or a discrete choice experiment (DCE). Eligibility: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Open to postgraduate students (e.g., Masters or PhD) enrolled at any university worldwide. Applicants must be the lead researcher on the project. Value: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Each scholarship winner will receive $2000 USD, without any restrictions on how the money is spent. The winner will also receive free access to 1000minds software for their project if they wish to use it. 	Closing date = 1 st December
Kate Edgar Educational Charitable Trust – Masters Degree Award	Any	Auckland Masters	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Awarded $8000 each. These awards may not be held concurrently with an award or grant of equal or higher value. This includes sponsored or paid study leave. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The purpose of this award is to assist women graduates to carry out full-time study for a Master’s Degree at an approved Institute in the Auckland region. The awards will be made for a year of study that includes either coursework and/or a research component. Up to eight Master’s Degree awards are available. The awards will be made for a year of study that includes either coursework and/or a research component. Eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Women. New Zealand citizens or permanent residents. Enrolled or preparing to enroll full time* for a master’s degree at an approved institute in the Auckland region. 	Closes = 30 th January